

Alphabet x order grid - ONE RUN PER CELL

Each square is a single draw. The census (fig4) shows these cells escape 10-43% of the time, so this grid measures which draw we happened to get, not which alphabets are learnable. Kept because it is the experiment that was run.